

SUPPORT OF LOCAL DAIRY PLANT IS URGED AT MEETING

Forty Hear Antioch Men
Tell of Enterprise and Development

Increasing Market For Products, A. M. Krahel Tells Banqueters

WAS STARTED IN 1928

Urging support for the Antioch dairy plant, and assuring producers of an ever increasing market for a quality product in the Chicago district, A. M. Krahel, former pastor of the local Methodist church, but now director of publicity for the Pure Milk association, made the principal address before an audience of 40 dairymen and business men assembled at the high school Monday evening.

Plant In Operation 18 Months

In January, 1928, three local men, C. E. Shultz, R. C. Abt and W. R. Williams, purchased the dairy property from the Broxham Dairy company, former operators of the plant here, and re-opened it for the benefit of producers in this vicinity who desired a home market place. Now the business has grown from about 4000 daily delivery to an enterprise that pays farmers more than $20,000 each month as told by Robert C. Abt, representing the owners. "Although the industry has been beset by many difficulties, including the recent milk strike and troubles incident to establishing a new business, the plant here has broken better than even," Mr. Abt said, quoting figures relating to the business in substantiation of his statements.

Salvage of Stock Announced

There are reasons, Mr. Abt said, why the present owners do not desire to remain in active management. None of the men are dairymen. Mr. Abt, the president, has a real estate and insurance business that requires practically all of his time. Mr. Williams and Mr. Shultz are merchants. They have demonstrated that the business here can be conducted successfully, and they wish to turn it over to other hands, if not a group of interested producers and merchants, then the business will be sold to some one outside the territory, the owners declare.

It is hoped the plant will remain in the hands of local owners, for the benefits of a dairy plant are unquestioned—good for the producers, good for the merchant, and good for the community.

IGNORANCE IS BLAMED FOR MANY TROUBLES WITH FARM MACHINES

Temper and Tools Are Saved if Correct Methods
Are Used

Urbana, June 27—A long list of evils from round nuts to lost tempers can be charged up against the improper use of wrenches around farm tools, according to D. A. Milligan, of the farm mechanics department, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. The toll includes stripped threads, broken wrenches and skinned hands, along with round nuts and lost tempers.

Broken and sprung jaws on end wrenches and broken and rounded on socket wrenches are the result of using wrenches that are too large for the nut. End wrenches should never be used with stretched or sprung jaws. They may be repaired by heating in the fire to a cherry red and closing over a nut of the size that fits the wrench.

Some Aren't Right

Broken crescent wrenches and monkey wrenches are caused by using them in the wrong direction. The handles of such wrenches should always be turned in the direction of the movable jaw, that is, the force should be applied to the handle in the direction of the movable jaw. The widening or breaking of the movable jaw slot and groove on crescent

—The Fourth Again—

Another national holiday is almost at hand—the Fourth of July. One week from today merchants, post-office officials, and persons in most lines of work will have a vacation. Thousands of Chicagoans will seek pleasure among the Chain O' Lakes.

Picnics, dancing, automobile trips and other outings are being planned. Boat races are scheduled at Fox Lake. Fireworks will be displayed at night in many places, and throughout the day there will be the boom-boom of fire-crackers.

Many persons think of the Fourth of July as a holiday and forget the significance of the occasion. Just 153 years ago, next Thursday—back in 1776—the United States came into being as a separate government. No longer were the new communities of America to be tied to the throne of England. Since the winning of the Independence, this nation of ours, the United States, has grown to be the leading nation of the world.

The Fourth of July should be a day of rejoicing. But at least residents should take time to erect a flag in honor of the nation's birthday.

OPERATIONS OF REDS EFFECTIVE IN COUNTY, SPEAKER MAINTAINS

Says Activities Will Have To Be Exposed To Be Stamped Out

Declaring that operations of Communists or "reds" are effective in Lake county, especially in the manufacturing city of Waukegan, N. E. Hewitt of the U. S. Intelligence department, gave an address at an open meeting of the American Legion in Waukegan Saturday night. Many Legion members and friends from Antioch attended.

Mr. Hewitt said that the work of the reds with the youth of the country is having astounding results. He told of camp held by the reds at Round Lake last summer, a camp for the "education" of young men. Protests throughout the country, however, made it necessary for the camp to be moved to Kenosha county, Wisconsin, according to Mr. Hewitt.

There are no laws to prevent the reds from carrying on their work, the speaker declared, but activities of such people may be curbed by exposing their teachings and intentions so that everyone will realize the danger at hand.

Practice What You Preach

Do not yourself do the things which you are in the habit of blaming; it is an evil thing when the fault of the teacher refuses him.—Cato.

Of Double Value

It is one of the most beautiful compensations of this life, that no man can sincerely try to help another without helping himself.—Samuel Smiles wrenches is always due to turning the wrench in the wrong direction.

"Never use a pipe wrench and rarely over-use pliers on a nut. It is possible to use pliers on a loose nut without greatly damaging it by setting the pliers in the wide slot, carefully placing the notches so that they fit the corners of the nut and then holding the pliers tight enough so that they do not slip in the turning. Alligator wrenches have no place in the farmer's tool kit.

One of Two Ways

"The secret of avoiding skinned knuckles and hands, when wrenches slip is to not close the hand over the handle of the wrench. Wrenches either should be pushed with the heel of the hand, the fingers remaining open, or else pulled with the fingers open in the form of a hook."

Scouts Are Furnishing Lounging and Reading Den in M. E. Church

Furnishing a den is one of the interests of the Boy Scouts of Troop 61 at this time.

The den is in the Methodist church. Books and magazines of interest to the boys will be on the shelves. The reading room is to be open from 1 o'clock to 5 o'clock Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

Furniture, especially a desk, books, and novelties are needed for the den. Persons having anything which the scouts may borrow or have as a permanent possession, are asked to call the Rev. Philip T. Bohl or Scout Dan Williams. An editorial concerning Scouting appears in today's editorial column.

SHEETS TO HELP ON ROAD LOCATION HERE THIS WEEK

State Highway Engineer To Assist With Right-of-way
Problem

With the assurance from Governor Emmerson that state highway No. 173 is to be built soon, active work on right-of-way in Lake county has been in progress this week. About half of the right-of-way in Antioch township has been secured. Supervisor Hosing stated this morning. Working with Mr. Hosing is Highway Commissioner Frank Dunn and assistants from the county surveyor's office.

Over one hundred complaints have been filed with the state highway department from those who do not approve of the route as surveyed for 173 in Antioch township. State Highway Engineer Frank T. Sheets is expected here this week to help untangle the right-of-way problems so that work on construction may start as soon as possible. It is said that location for the road has been agreed upon east of Antioch in Lake county and also in McHenry county.

OPEN PRACTISE COURSE

An old copy book maxim says, "Practice Makes Perfect," and certainly this is true of golf. With this in mind, golfers of Lake county will be interested in learning that a new golf practise fairway opens Saturday, June 29, on Route 21, two miles north of Libertyville. Each player receives a pull of golf balls, for which a small rental fee is charged, and then stands at a tee and drives down the fairway. Boys are on hand to recover the balls. The fairway is marked at regular intervals so that players can see how far they drive. Although the practise course is a new idea, it has met with popular approval elsewhere.

BODY OF EVANSTON BABY IS RECOVERED AT CHANNEL LAKE

Child Drowned Monday
Is Not Found Until Late Wednesday

FELL OUT OF BOAT

Search in Channel lake for the body of two year old Delores Marie English was ended late Wednesday afternoon when the body was recovered by Captain Otto Fricke of the U. S. Coast guard, Evanston.

The baby, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Donald English, 1403 Main street, Evanston, was drowned Monday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock when she fell from the boat in which she was riding with her mother and an uncle, Charles Bammesberger, Evanston. Just how the accident happened cannot be explained according to Mrs. English who was sitting next to the baby and holding to the neck of the bathing suit the child was wearing. After the child fell into the water, the body never reappeared above the surface.

Members of the Antioch fire department, the coast guard of Evanston, and other interested persons and organizations dragged the lake in vain from Monday until yesterday. The coast guard crew had been at work since Tuesday morning. After finding the body, the inquest was held in the Strang mortuary, Antioch.

Funeral services will be held in Evanston Friday morning.

Mr. English, father of the child, this morning expressed his appreciation of the many kindnesses extended by the people living at Channel lake, Antioch and vicinity.

JUDGE SAYS STATE SHOULD BUY LAKES OF THIS DISTRICT

Declaration Made After Cottage Owners Ask For Injunction

Buying by the State of lakes in Lake county is offered by Judge Claire C. Edwards, circuit judge, as a solution to the problem now confronting the people of this vicinity since the injunction placed against Diamond lake, Lake Zurich.

Fox lake is the only lake in the county owned by the government, and Judge Claire C. Edwards says that he believes the state should condemn property around lakes and purchase the lakes, making them available for use by the public. In that case, he pointed out, the lakes would become public property and anyone would be permitted to use any and all parts of the lakes, and would eliminate private beaches in front of the summer homes of persons who own to the shore line.

In order to uphold an injunction against barring the people to a lake, the complaints must show that the lake is either navigable in law or in fact. If the lake is meandered by U. S. Survey, it is navigable in law and if it is used for commercial traffic, it is navigable in fact.

In Lake Zurich cottage owners have banded together to get an injunction to restrain August Froelich, president of the village, and Mrs. Margaret Pearce from interfering with the public's use and enjoyment of the lake.

The complainants set forth that Froelich and Mrs. Margaret Pearce have posted a set of rules and charges for the uses of the lake, declaring that cottagers must pay $1 a year for each boat they have on the lake, outsiders must pay $2 a year, commercial boats must be paid for at $3 each, motor and sailing boats at $5 each and the operation of a motor launch on the lake will cost the owner $50 a year.

—Cooks Must Be!

We may live without poetry, music and art,
We may live without conscience and live without heart.

We may live without friends, we may live without books,

But civilized man cannot live without cooks.

Owen Meredith's rhyme has more truth than poetry in it—not that we are criticizing the poetry, but we are only trying to emphasize how necessary good cooks are!

Antioch has a great many good cooks. Proof? In the pudding, of course. Then, too, there couldn't be so many happy persons as there are here, if there weren't plenty of good, delicious, and wholesome dishes. Save this page of recipes. They are selected from the best offered by some of Antioch's best cooks. Within a short time other Antioch women will be interviewed and another page of recipes and household hints will be printed.

Mrs. Medora Webb Guesses Amounts For Cooking Use

Perhaps there isn't a better cook in Antioch than Mrs. Medora Webb. Ask anyone who has eaten her meals, her cakes, her salads, her—well, just anything she has made.

When approached Monday for some recipes she laughed and exclaimed: "Why, I just guess 'an' be darned!" She said that anyone who has cooked as many years as she has almost forgets about a cook book, and just puts ingredients together.

Then incidentally she told how she used to make so many doughnuts. Dozens and dozens of them. Good idea! Why not tell the readers of THE ANTIOCH NEWS about how to make doughnuts? Mrs. Webb finally agreed to do so, and here's how:

Mrs. Richey Boasts Recipe Repertory With Variations

Enthusiastic teachers of domestic science are always "chuck full" of new ideas. The ideas are usually good ones, too. That's why the following recipes given to THE ANTIOCH NEWS by Mrs. Ruby Richey, instructor of home economics at Antioch High school, should prove valuable to readers.

Potato Pancakes

Grate one quart of raw potatoes. Add six eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons flour. Fry, but not in deep fat. Mrs. Radtke uses suet for one-half the fat. With the potato pan-

Generous half-cup sugar
1 egg
1 tablespoon melted shortening (use at least half butter)
Pinch of salt
Nutmeg to flavor
1/2 teaspoon ginger (this keeps the doughnuts from becoming dry)
1 teaspoon lemon extract
1 teaspoon baking powder
Scant half teaspoon soda
Mrs. Webb sifts the soda and baking powder with the flour. Then she adds enough milk so that the dough can be handled easily. Mrs. Webb laughingly said that if all the doughnuts she had made during her lifetime were placed in a continuous chain, the chain would be 20 miles in length.

CARE AND FEED GIVEN GROWING STOCK SAID DETERMINING FACTORS

Production During Next Winter Is Concerned This Season

Poultry raisers too often become negligent in the care of the chicks after the first three to four weeks. By doing so they cut their own profits. Growth must be uniform, unchecked, and moderately rapid throughout the growing period if the pullets are to develop into profitable layers.

The chicks should be furnished heat until they are well feathered and the season is such that they are able to keep warm by themselves. The time may vary from six to 12 weeks, as the heat is taken away the chicks should be taught to roost, otherwise considerable trouble may be encountered with their crowding on the floor.

One of the best ways to get growing stock to roost is to build a sloping roost at the rear of the house, or on one side and cover the underneath side with a fine mesh wire so that the chicks cannot get in between. They will take to this temporary roost in no time.

Sell Surplus Cockerels
Most of the cockerels should be sold as broilers as the room on the developing range and in the brooder houses is needed for the pullets. Besides the cockerels begin to bother the pullets when they are three to four months old.

A good range will be of material help in developing profitable birds. It is surprising how pullets will respond to fresh soil and succulent grass range is not available, give the birds some green feed every day.

Do not let parasites gain a foothold. There is nothing that will undermine the health or vitality of your growing flock faster. Keep your brooder house clean and spray it thoroughly with some good coal tar disinfectant at least once a month; preferably every week. Dust the pullets occasionally with Sodium Fluoride or paint the roosts with Black Leaf 40 to be sure to keep them free of lice.

Feed a Mash
The quality, size, and productivity of a flock of pullets in the fall depend in a large way upon the ration and water supply.

Growing stock need something besides grain. They need a good developing mash as part of their ration. The mash should be kept before the birds all the time. Be sure to provide plenty of hopper space. In addition to your regular hoppers in the house scatter some hoppers over the range so the young stock will be sure to eat all the mash they need.

In the morning and again in the late afternoon give them some coarse chick feed. It adds variety to their ration, tends to fatten them over night, and helps to develop their digestive tract so that it will be able to handle lots of feed efficiently.

The amount of mash and coarse chick feed they will eat varies with the age and size of the stock, and the season. Late hatched chicks should be brought along steadily and rapidly, thus need more mash and less grain as compared to early hatched chicks. Never restrict the feed, because it will result in stunted, unproductive, undersized pullets.

The problem as to what ingredients to use for a developing mash may be eliminated by selecting one of the better commercial mashes. They are a scientific combination of just the things growing pullets need to build large strong frames, firm flesh, and good plumage. More than that, they are especially prepared to use right at the time when the pullets are developing their egg-producing organs.

"KONJOLA PUT AN END TO ALL MY ILLS", SAYS MAN

Stomach and Kidney Disorders Had Brought On A Badly Run Down Condition

Mr. J. A. CLARK

"Konjola put an end to all my ills," said Mr. J. A. Clark, Penfield, Illinois. "For years I suffered from particularly severe cases of stomach trouble. Food soured in my stomach, and caused gas and bloating. Indigestion pains were terrible. At night my kidneys got me up frequently. I was discouraged, believing that at my age, 68, I might be too far gone to get any kind of help.

"But I began to feel better at once, after starting with Konjola. My stomach was restored to a normal, healthy condition, and indigestion disappeared. Then my kidneys were corrected, and allowed me to sleep as I could years ago. In five weeks my organs were functioning perfectly, and all the poisons had been swept from my system. I feel like a new man. I praise Konjola every chance I get, and recommend it to all who suffer as I did."

Konjola is sold in Antioch at S. H. Reeves drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Most people want it but but never get it. The reason that the name Church School is used rather than Sunday School is that it is not Sunday that is emphasized but the Church. The Church is the thing, and its teaching is not to be thought of as in times past as confirming its teaching to an hour on Sunday. The ideal is regular weekly religious instruction. In many towns an hour after school every Wednesday for Church School is the rule. It is up to the parents. St. Ignatius' church offers a hearty welcome to all to attend its services of worship. ANTIOCH SCOUTS ARE BUSY

Scouting in Antioch follows a definite program. Troop 61 is especially active at this time under the new leadership of the Rev. Philip T. Bohl. The exhibition of Scouting given at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday night was remarkable. Boys who are interested in the type of work displayed are boys of the highest type. They are the leaders of tomorrow.

Youths who study nature, youths who spend their time studying for Scout tests, youths who read literature such as Scoutmasters endorse, will seldom go wrong. Scouting carried on in a haphazard, careless way does not reap benefits. A steady program must be maintained to develop the spiritual, moral, and physical sides of every boy.

Ilkes are enjoyed by the local scouts. Last week Mr. Bohl took Harold Nelson, Dan Williams, Julius Petersen, Frederick Petersen, and Jack Wetzel for an outing, and soon excursions will be participated in by all the boys. Games, too, help develop the physical qualities of the boys.

One of the newest requirements of the Scouts of Troop is a den—a reading room where the boys may lounge, read books and magazines, and study for tests. The reading room is to be open from 1 to 5 o'clock Wednesday and Friday of each week and Saturday nights from 7 to 9:30 o'clock.

The den is attractive, boasting book shelves, collections of shells, magazine racks, and chairs. Quite a home-like atmosphere is being obtained by the boys.

There are great many possibilities—and these boys will attain great goals during this summer and the coming winter.

And they deserve the support of every resident of the community.

ANTIOCH AND THE FOURTH

Antioch and vicinity will be hosts to thousands of persons over the Fourth of July holidays. Everyone will be out for a good time—to make merry.

The Fourth of July no longer is the occasion for needless deaths and painful accidents as it once was, but still through carelessness or ignorance there are many mishaps and fatalities on this holiday.

There is a danger in handling fire crackers or other accessories. In spite of the facts there has been a great decrease in the number of deaths from Fourth of July causes there are still thousands of persons who are injured.

jured. Hospital authorities estimate that tens of thousands of persons will be injured so that they must submit to the administration of anti-toxin as a preventative agent—all as a result of fireworks.

Safe and sane Fourth's are possible—but each individual must do his part.

FAIR TO ALL

The American protective tariff principle is eminently fair. Its purpose is not to exclude foreign producers from our markets. What it does do is to equalize, by levying a duty, the costs of production here and in other countries.

We have revolutionized old economic systems and established industrial principles of high wages and good living conditions for all workers. Almost all the foreign powers are behind us in this respect.

The time may come when the entire world is on a basis of industrial equality with all workers earning high wages and every nation prosperous. Such a world would be the longest-for Utopia. But in the meantime our own prosperity is dependent on protecting our manufacturers, farmers and workers from ruinous cheap labor foreign competition.

Here is an agricultural thought for the day: If all those farmers who are accustomed to spend their time riding around in automobiles were to stay at home and raise wheat how much higher would the wheat surplus be?

The latest news from juvenile circles is that hoop rolling is coming back again, so that the pedestrian won't be safe even on the sidewalks.

Why is it that in the movies, to be efficient as a secretary a girl is supposed to be plain as a mud fence, wear spectacles and have no sense of humor whatsoever?

Did you ever notice that when folks start out to wish a nasty job on you they always begin by handing you a lot of applause about your wonderful executive ability?

Hint to June brides: One of our wise woman friends says that the only way to have an ideal husband is to keep crediting to him all the virtues you thought he had before you married him and pretty soon you will have yourself so fooled you will be almost as happy as you thought you would be.

When the nature loving child fills the family vases with buttercups and daisies, father always selects a daisy to put in his coat lapel—because daisies won't tell.

According to statisticians, half of the people of the world are engaged in agriculture. And it would seem that the other half is trying to find some kind of relief for the first half.

You have heard persons call shoes "big boots," haven't you? Well, we just wondered, as we saw George Rhodes go by with a row boat and trailer on his car, if that's how the boat and shoe businesses (his lines of work) are associated.

A. G. Watson was up in front of Depner's cafe Monday morning, standing on a ladder. Two small boys were watching Mr. Watson climb and were watching him at work. "Come on, let's go," one of the small boys urged, "I don't think he is going to fall, after all."

Roxy Felter likes to break into the printed sheet—especially in a big daily newspaper like THE ANTIOCH NEWS, and we can't very well have him break into print without having F. W. Peters, his side-kick, tagalong. But really, isn't it a convincing and encouraging sign to see these two men sit and sup "chocolat" sodas each day?

Just about the time everyone in Antioch decided this village is a thriving little city, someone from Chicago comes along and remarks about the wonderfully delectable country air here, and the friendliness of the typical small town people! Just wait until a New Yorker lands in Chicago and calls Illinois' largest, a village!

Early the other morning, two small boys were seen walking past the high school. As they came to the home of Dr. Jensen, they saw the sign: Sequoit Farm, Dr. G. W. Jensen, Veterinarian. The boys looked at the sign, then the older one asked what the last word was. The younger one had no idea. The older boy read the Dr. G. W. Jensen part, and then the smaller youth exclaimed: "Oh, that last word's 'horse doctor.'"

Antioch--Lake County--Every Place!

LAKE county has a large number of visitors during the summer season and over the Fourth of July.

The Lake County Farm bureau is interested in making Lake County, not only the best in production, but in assisting in making it neat and attractive. With this view and end, the Chambers of Commerce in Lake county, have been asked to set aside July 1, 2, and 3 as special days for cleaning up the roadsides, straightening mail-boxes, and putting the county in "tip-top" shape.

Lake county is the playgrounds of Chicago. Crowds are drawn to Lake county by the lakes, golf courses, picnic grounds, amusement parks and the friendly spirit shown here. These visitors are composed of persons who own property and come out to spend ends of the week or the summer, prospective property owners and those who are out just for the day. If everything looks neat and attractive these people will come back to Lake county.

The Lake County Farm bureau, Chambers of Commerce, Towns, Villages and all civic organizations urge everyone to do his part in making Lake county look its best for this summer.

own food"

"We sweep the floor, run the separator, churn the milk, wash the clothes, light the house and build in, run the grinder, pump the water and milk the cows with Delco-Light. We still chew our own food for the love of exercise, but there ain't much else we can do better'n Delco-Light."

"That ain't laziness or extravagance either. It's just plain horse sense. We save the price of two hired hands, get more milk and eggs, don't spend money anymore for Ma's back and my lumbago and get solid comfort to boot."

The Delco-Light user who said all those things put the facts plain and easy. And we can show you in black and white just what that farmer and lots like him actually do save by using Delco-Light.

ROSS AND WILLIAMS ARE TO STAGE FIGHT AT ANTIOCH PALACE

Jokinen And Sames Are Among Others Who Will Be On Hand Friday

Barney Ross will be back at the Antioch Palace tomorrow night, and this time his opponent will be Tommy Williams, Golden Glove winner. The first bout on the card will start at 8:15 Standard Time.

Another bout of unusual interest tomorrow night, will be when Erno Jokinen, Waukegan, 160 pounds, boxes But Seiler, Libertyville. Jokinen is one of the favorites of Palace fans, but has not appeared in the ring here for several weeks.

Red Schaeffer, Waukegan, 125 pounds, is going to take on a Davenport, Iowa man, Leo Donnelly. Antioch's youthful fighter, George Sames, 111 pounds, is scheduled to meet Oscar O'Hannion, Waukegan. O'Hannion will give plenty of fight for the local boy, and the bout should be a good one.

In a return match, Harry Garbell, Golden Glove winner, is to meet Ray Newman, St. Paul. Buddy Beyers, Twin Lakes, 160 pounds, and Red McDowell will put on a real exhibition, no doubt, and Karl Ogren, Waukegan, and Eddie Garlow, Kenosha, will stage the semi-windup. Besides the boxing entertainment, Oscar Westlund and his Brunswick recording orchestra, the Minnesota Gophers from the University of Minnesota, will offer musical selections.

Ross Is Winner

Staging a strong enough comeback in the third round, after being shaded in the first two periods, to win the match, Barney Ross displayed some classy boxing in his exhibition with Jackie Davis last Friday night. There fighters were evenly matched and the fight was far superior to the average. Ross had not been to the Palace for some time, but he was his old time self and was given a great ovation by the spectators when he stepped over the ropes.

Equally good as the Ross-Davis fight was the bout between Ray Newman and Harry Garbell, in which both men tried to land kayos, but were unsuccessful. Newman was given the decision as he had several knock-downs to his credit, but for the general fighting Garbell held his own. After the final bell of the third period, the fighters kept punching one another, and although the referee separated them, they can try again tomorrow night when they are slated for a return bout.

Taylor Is Winner

Johany Hughes and Don Conn fought for three rounds and then the judges announced a draw. Conn was all in for the fourth period and the decision went to Hughes.

Ted Berg was defeated by George Taylor. Taylor was unusually aggressive, and although Berg did some pretty fighting Taylor deserved the decision.

Eddie Garlow couldn't whip John Taylor although he tried mightily hard. The fight was a close one and a draw seemed possible.

George Sames is going to make Antioch very proud of him if he keeps improving. He did some nice boxing—nice enough to win over Dominick Blearso.

Twain Pearce lost to Clarence Ballard, A. A. U. champ.

Amusements

"The Gophers," Brunswick recording musicians, came to Antioch yesterday, preparatory to opening the summer dance season at the Antioch Palace Saturday night. The Gophers will make their initial appearance at the boxing show tomorrow night, however.

The Gophers are a collegiate group of musicians who have just finished a 12 months' engagement at the Morrygold ballroom, Minneapolis. Several records have been made by the Gophers, and a new one is to be released July 1. In this 10-man organization is found a great variety of instruments, the xylophone being one of the leading attractions and one of the reasons why the music of The Gophers is "different." Art White is the noted vocal soloist.

The dance season opens Saturday night, followed by nightly dancing with the exception of Fridays when boxing shows are held.

As a Promoter, music lovers an opponent in hear the Gophers next Monday and Tuesday nights when no general admission charge will be made at the Palace. The Gophers' playing will be the first time a Brunswick recording orchestra has furnished dance music in Lake county.
